STATUS OF MAJOR LITIGATION

As of May 31, 1975, there were 259 litigation projects involving the Commission, up 8 from last month.

1. Pariani v. State of California
San Francisco Superior Court Case No. 657291

w 503.737

(Plaintiff seeks to quiet title to three parcels of land in Sonoma and Lake Counties. State patented said land into private ownership in 1953, reserving all mineral rights. Plaintiff now seeks to determine whether geothermal energy was reserved to the State under the 1953 patent.)

The Attorney General's Office filed a cross-complaint in July 1973, and in October 1973 a demurrer was filed to certain answers filed by one group of plaintiffs. On December 4, 1973, the Court upheld the State's demurrer, thereby eliminating three of the plaintiff's defenses in the case. A pretrial trial conference is scheduled in July.

2. Union Oil Company of California v. Houston I. W 503.747
Flournoy, et al.
U. S. District Court, Central District

(An action by Union Oil Company to prevent the State from selling royalty oil.)

Under State Oil and Gas Lease PRC 3033 entered into with Union Oil Company, the Commission had the right to receive royalty payments in kind. At its July 1973 meeting, the Commission announced its intention to receive bids for this royalty oil and for royalty oil for other Orange and Los Angeles County leases. Bids were subsequently received for this royalty oil. The contract for the purpose of this oil was to be awarded at the October 25, 1973, Commission meeting, but this award was prevented by Union's filing and obtaining on October 4, 1974, an order to show cause and temporary restraining order. Union alleged that the sale was in violation of the Federal Government "Phase IV" price controls and was hence illegal. On November 5, 1973, the preliminary injunction obtained by Union was denied and the temporary restraining order was dissolved.

2. Union Oil Company of California v. Houston I. W 503.747
Flournoy, et al.
U. S. District Court, Central District

On November 29, 1973, the Commission awarded the contract to purchase the cil. That same day, Plaintiff applied for another temporary restraining order to prevent the sale, which order was denied. Plaintiff's second application for preliminary injunction was heard and denied on June 3, 1974, at which time Union indicated they would hold the case in abeyance pending the outcome of People v. Simon. A pretrial hearing was set for December 9, but upon Union's Motion the hearing was postponed. Union now indicates that they will file a motion for summary judgment, but to date no motion has been filed.

3. State of California v. County of San Mateo, W 1839.28 W 6987

San Mateo Superior Court Case No. 144257

Suit seeking Declaratory Judgment to protect the public property rights in land covered by the open waters of South San Francisco Bay westerly of the deep draught ship channel, the area of which has been substantially increased with the filing of a cross-complaint by Westbay Community Associates 10,000 acres and 21 miles of to be an approximate shoreline including most of the westerly portion of the Bay between the San Francisco International Airport and the southerly San Mateo County line. Titles to other adjacent substantial areas of salt ponds have been brought into the case with the filing of a complaint in intervention by Leslie Salt Co. Pretrial and discovery proceedings are now in progress, with factual investigation, relating to substantial and complex issues, continuing.

The parties have been participating in settlement negotiations but have not yet arrived at any compromise which could be recommended to the Commission.

4. People v. Jonathan Club, et al. Los Angeles Superior Court No. 35486 W 503.773

(Complaint to quiet title 4.5 acres of artificially filled tidelands in the City of Santa Monica.)

In 1921, the Legislature granted tidelands to the City of Santa Monica. Since that time, the area granted has been artificially filled, resulting in an additional 4.5 acres of beach. Plaintiffs—the City of Santa Monica, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and the State Lands Commission—contend that this artificially filled area is State owned. Defendant's dumurrer to the State's complaint was overruled. The parties will now proceed with pretrial procedures.

5. Wilcox v. State of California
Sacramento Superior Court Case No. 252408

w 503.778

(Plaintiff brought action to quiet title to a berm attached to his uplands on the Sacramento River across from Rio Vista.)

The basis of the action rests on an application of Section 6360 of the Public Resources Code. This section creates certain presumptions concerning ownership and boundaries to lands in the Delta area. The Office of the Attorney General is presently preparing an Answer to the Complaint.

6. Cory v. State
Sacramento Superior Court Case No. 252295

w 503.780

(Complaint to vacate the approval of PRC 4977 offshore El Capitan, Santa Barbara County.)

On December 19, 1974, the State Lands Commission authorized the issuance of a lease to Exxon Corporation and Exxon Pipeline Company. In so doing, the Commission adopted an environmental statement prepared pursuant to the National Envrionmental Policy Act. The Complaint alleges that the project, as approved by the Commission, differs significantly from the project as described in the environmental statement and that the Commission's approval was an abuse of discretion. Plaintiff, now represented by the Office of the Attorney General, asks that the approval of the lease be set aside. A court hearing was held on March 19, 1975, but to date the court has not issued a decision.

7. People V. Halvor G. Schultz, et al. Yolo County Superior Court Case 10. 32197

W 503.785

(Ejectment action to compel removal of trespassing marina from the Sacramento River, and damages therefor.)

On February 13, 1975, the State Lands Commission filed a Complaint in enjectment and for damages for trespass to compel the removal and to prevent the continuing trespass and maintenance of a marina situated on the Sacramento River in Yolo County at the confluence of the American River. Defendants in this action have been served with a Summons and Complaint and meetings have been held with the Division to discuss settlement of the matter and leasing arrangements. It is anticipated a settlement will be reached in the near future.

8. People v. Patricia Avila, et al. Yolo County Superior Court Case No. 32249

w 503.787

(Ejectment action to compel removal of trespassing marina and restaurant from the Sacramento River, and damages therefor.)

On February 25, 1975, the State Lands Commission filed a Complaint in ejectment and for damages therefor to compel the removal and to prevent the continuing trespass and maintenance of a marina and restaurant situated on the Sacramento River in Yolo County at the confluence of the American River. Defendants in this action have been served with a Summons and Complaint, and have entered into settlement negotiations with the Division.

9. People v. Zarb, et al.

U. S. District Court, Central Distr .t

CV #75-854 WMB

w 503.788

(Complaint for injunction and declaratory relief.)

The State Lands Commission has filed an action against the Federal Energy Administration and the Burmah Oil Company, challenging the validity of a determination by the FEA that Burmah is entitled to the State's royalty oil despite sell-off agreements to World Oil Company and U.S.A. Petroleum Company. A hearing on a preliminary injunction was scheduled for April 21 in the U.S. District Court in Los Angeles. That hearing was put over and Burmah has stipulated
