APPROVAL OF LAND EXCHANGE IN COMPROMISE AND SETTLEMENT OF LITIGATION INVOLVING FILLED TIDE AND SUBMERGED LANDS IN THE CITY OF STOCKTON, SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY,
DARRAH V. STATE OF CALIFORNIA, ET AL., SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY
SUPERIOR COURT NO. 137481

In April of 1978, litigation was instituted against the State of California, State Lands Commission, by Guard C. Darrah, to quiet title to a parcel of land containing the filled old channel of the Calaveras River, San Joaquin County. In June of 1979, Lois Darrah was joined as a party plaintiff.

At its December, 1979 meeting, the Commission approved settlement of this litigation based upon a proposed exchange agreement. Following the December, 1979 Commission meeting, it became apparent that some unresolved issues still remained and that the terms of the settlement would have to be modified.

An exchange agreement has now been reached which will result in settlement of this litigation. Basically, the agreement calls for the State to release its interest in a portion of the filled section of the old channel of the Calaveras River. In return, the Darrahs will convey to the State fee title in Darrah Island and their access rights from the upland, subject to a life estate in Mr. Darrah. Darrah Island is approximately one acre in size and located downstream in the Calaveras River from the complaint parcel. It is surrounded by water with access from the nearby upland. Darrah Island is more suitable for public use and ownership than the filled old channel of the Calaveras River located within the complaint parcel. The State is also receiving quitclaims from the Darrahs to any interest which they may have in the present channel of the Calaveras River.

In addition, the state will quitclaim to the Darrahs its interest to a narrow access strip which borders on the eastern edge of the disputed parcel, grant the Darrahs a use permit on another small access strip and lease back to them a narrow strip of the present channel of the Calaveras River on a rent-free basis for 10 years or until Mr. Darrah's death, whichever period is shorter. The lease will then convert to the commercial rates existing at that time.
