EXTENSION OF DEADLINE FOR EXECUTION OF
MORRO BAY LITIGATION SETTLEMENT/
BOUNDARY LINE AGREEMENT

On December 17, 1981, the Commission, by Minute Item 37, approved and authorized execution of a proposed litigation settlement and boundary line agreement (BLA 207) between the State, the City of Morro Bay, and a number of private parties. That agreement was to have been executed first by all private parties and lastly by the City and the State no later than April 30, 1982.

Delays have been experienced due to particular concerns that one of the private parties has had regarding the terms of a separate agreement between the private parties and the City to be executed concurrently with BLA 207.

Although these difficulties have been substantially resolved, additional time would be required to execute and transmit the two agreements in their final form. The Commission was informed of the need for a two-month extension for execution at its April 20, 1981 meeting. Staff requests approval of an additional one month to extend the deadline for execution by the City of Morro Bay and the State to July 30, 1982.
