REPORT ON PROPOSED PUBLIC HEARING REGARDING POSSIBLE TRUST
NEEDS IN SAN RAFAEL BAY

At the November 17, 1983 meeting of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission (BCDC), a public hearing was held to consider an application to build two two-story residences, most of which would be on pilings on tidewaters of San Rafael Bay. The lands involved are partially unfilled Board of Tideland Commissioners (BTLC) lots fronting on San Rafael Bay, Marin County.

The unfilled portions of these lots, at least, are subject to a public trust easement pursuant to the ruling in City of Berkeley v. Superior Court of Alameda County, 26 Cal. 3d. 515 (1980).

BCDC action on this application was postponed to January 5, 1983 at the request of the staff. Staff recommends that the Commission authorize a public hearing in the San Rafael area to be conducted by staff to inquire into the public trust needs and appropriate uses of unfilled BTLC lots in San Rafael Bay which have not been included within legislative trust grants to local governmental bodies. It is further recommended that staff be directed to make a record of such hearing and to report back to the Commission on such trust needs as may be shown to exist in San Rafael Bay's unfilled and ungranted BTLC lots and to recommend an appropriate course of action concerning such trust needs.
